So, shown below is an interesting little 'Screen Shot' I captured from a You Tube video of the 1964 Nationals at IRP. Along with shots of Dick Landy's silver '64 Altered Wheelbase car, the Color Me Gone car and the Golden Commandos Plymouth Super Stocker, was this Super Stock/Automatic car with Andis Motors as the sponsor on the quarter panel. I forwarded the video link and then called IMC Member Jeff Andis and asked if this car was sponsored by his dad & grandfather's Chrysler-Dodge-Plymouth dealership in Greenfield, Indiana. It was! How cool is that! Not much info on the car yet but Jeff is going to try to get a little more information from his dad for an upcoming feature. A quick 'Google' search turned up another Andis Motors car at a somewhat recent show. Jeff saw this '66 Dodge Hemi car with the dealership emblem still on it at an event. Great history!

TATTLER'S CORNER (In Memory of Jan Peel and her awesome sense of humor!)

I suggested to a certain Club member that he convert his wife's Sebring convertible to one of these stunning Muffler-Mobiles. I thought his wife could drive it around to advertise his muffler business. I doubt he's started fabrication yet because I've not gotten a death threat from her!
